

Nassau Inn Presents Annual Bridal Show

On April 18th, wedding professionals gather under one roof

By Joe Eisele

A lifetime of memories begins with what can seem like a lifetime of decisions in the planning process. The historic Nassau Inn, located at Ten Palmer Square East in downtown Princeton will host its Annual Bridal Show on Sunday, April 18, 2010 from 1:00 - 3:30 p.m. Brides and grooms-to-be can plan their entire wedding in one location by meeting with top area bridal professionals, seeing the latest trends in bridal fashions, food and entertainment, and enjoying tastings of various culinary delights provided by Nassau Inn and Chez Alice. They expect more than 100 brides to attend with their friends and families.

The endless choices offered by the bridal show makes the process a memorable and enjoyable experience.

"It's convenient for the couple, because they're not running all over the place," said Director of Catering Services Marianne Bilski.

"Everything is in one location. They can compare and weigh choices all in one place."

This is the first year Nassau Inn will showcase bridal fashions amongst the people at the bridal show as opposed to on a runway. Models will be walking throughout the show wearing designer dresses and tuxedos from The Bridal Suite of Hamilton and Giovanni's Wedding Center.

Marianne added that in addition to hosting this bridal event, the Nassau Inn is also a great place to hold weddings. Not only does it have a variety of suites and guest rooms to accommodate weddings of all sizes, Nassau Inn also offers elaborate wedding packages which include wedding cake selections, an open bar, tableside wine service, a parlor suite for the bride and groom, and more. In addition, rehearsal dinners and post-wedding breakfasts are popular to create a wedding weekend getaway.

DJ and live entertainment will be performed in various rooms throughout the show by Franklin & Alison Orchestra and Ultrax Entertainment. Consultants from Cosmo Bleu and Salon Pure will be on hand to demonstrate the latest styles for bridal hair and make-up. They will be in good company with wedding professionals showcasing photography, videography, floral design, limousine services, dance lessons, jewelry and other wedding party gifts, invitations, furniture and more. There is still space available for vendors to exhibit at the show; contact Nassau Inn if you're interested.

All attending brides and grooms-to-be will receive a copy of Manhattan Bride Magazine in a gift bag filled with coupons, brochures and special offers from various vendors at the show. Exciting gift baskets and door prizes will be awarded throughout the bridal show. Additionally, Nassau Inn will feature a wedding reception sale on Gold and Romance Packages contracted during April 18-24, 2010, occurring prior to December 31, 2010. This promotion is based upon availability and valid only for new bookings.

Admission is complimentary. R.S.V.P. by phone to 609.688.2634 or e-mail to sales@nassauinn.com. Walk-ins are welcome. Nassau Inn is conveniently located in downtown Princeton in the center of Palmer Square, off of Routes 1, 206 and 27. For more information, visit <http://www.nassauinn.com/weddings> or call a Nassau Inn representative at 609.921.7500, Ext. 634.

The Nassau Inn embraces the 18th and 21st Centuries combining history, luxury and comfort, making it one of the most unique, special destinations to get married.

"We are excited for the Yankee Doodle Tap Room's new outdoor patio on Palmer Square West to be opened mid-May, built by Spiegle Group and M.O.D. Construction.

This will add a new dimension to the Nassau Inn, Palmer Square and downtown Princeton." said General Manager Lori Rabon.

— Nassau Inn contributed to this article.

Photos courtesy of Nassau Inn

- (Above) Prince William Ballroom
- (Right) The Palmer Room
- (Far-Right) Sketch of future Tap Room patio

COMING SOON

YANKEE DOODLE TAP ROOM
OUTDOOR DINING PLAZA

